The 1978-79 basketball trail for the Pumas was a very successful one. The Pumas won the Puma 100 Classic, the first Great Lakes Valley Conference championship, and won the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional tournament. Then the Pumas proceeded to New Haven, Connecticut, at Yale University, where Saint Joe lost in the semifinals to Bridgeport, Connecticut, 92-82. The path of the Pumas finally ended. Congratulations, Pumas, on a fine 20-10 season!
